

This is a detailed topographic map of the Leadville, Colorado area. The map features the Elk River flowing through the center, with several tributaries including Sugar Run, Honey Run, and Turkeybone Run. To the east, the Monongahela National Forest is depicted with dense contour lines indicating steep terrain. The town of Leadville is shown in the lower-left quadrant, with surrounding areas like Elkins and Harpertown. The map includes various geographical features such as ridges (e.g., Turkeybone Ridge), valleys (e.g., Leadville Valley), and numerous smaller creeks and runs. Infrastructure like roads (e.g., US-24, US-163) and railroads are also shown. The map is overlaid with a grid of latitude and longitude coordinates, with latitude ranging from 39° 00' N to 39° 45' N and longitude from 106° 30' W to 106° 00' W. The map is titled 'LEADVILLE' in large, bold letters across the center. The map is credited to 'A.H. ROBINSON' in the bottom right corner.
